

"How Do I View God?" -- A Reflective Quiz Inspired by A.W. Tozer

1. When you imagine God's face turned toward you, what expression do you see?

- Disappointment
- Joy and warmth
- Indifference
- Gentle concern
- Fierce authority

Reflection: What do you think that says about how you believe God feels about you? Is this how Scripture describes God's face toward His children?

2. Complete this sentence in your own words: "God is _____."

Reflection: Is your description based more on experience, Scripture, or inherited ideas? If a child asked you what God is like, would you give the same answer?

3. When you fail or fall short, what do you imagine God doing?

- Waiting for me to fix it
- Turning away in disappointment
- Drawing near in compassion
- Getting angry
- Helping me grow through it

Reflection: What does this reveal about whether you see God as a judge, helper, or Father?

4. Which of these roles most aligns with how you see God?

- Distant ruler
- Loving father
- Strict boss
- Close friend
- Wise mentor

Reflection: How does this shape how you pray or talk to Him?

5. Do you ever feel like you need to *earn* God's love or approval? Why or why not?

Reflection: Are there moments when you feel more loved by God -- and why might that be?

7. When you're struggling, do you feel like God wants to:

- Teach you a lesson
- Punish you for something
- Walk with you in it
- Rescue you quickly
- Leave you to figure it out

Reflection: What kind of Father is that -- and does Scripture confirm or correct that picture?

8. Do you believe God enjoys you? Why or why not?

9. How comfortable are you with the idea of God as Abba (Daddy/Father)?

- Very comfortable - it feels intimate and real
- Somewhat comfortable - I like it, but struggle to feel it
- Uncomfortable - it feels too casual or vulnerable
- I've never thought about it that way

10. How do you imagine God sees you, right now -- not someday, but today?
